

I have worked since 5 September 1951:
up to 25 February 1953 at the Military Headquarters in Munich, Germany as Consultant - Interpreter; Transferred to the United States on 26 February 1953, I continued to work without interruption with the Department of the Army in different units of the Department under control of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations (and/or Intelligence) as Consultant -Interpreter and Research Analyst.

My work was finished on 13 September 1974 by obligatory retirement due to reaching the age of 70 years.

To Mr. Greg.

This is all I can say without committing any error.
However, even here is some doubt as to the Operations or Intelligence branch to which the units were subordinated. I have the impression that in the beginning they were under the Ops and later under Int, but I am not sure of this, nor do I remember the dates when the automatic transfers from one unit to another (or the renominations of the units) occurred.
